Computer Science
Unit 3 Questions

1. Why is it important to write detailed instructions in computer programming?

2. What is the program development cycle? In your own words list and explain each step.

3. What is debugging a program? List and explain the steps that a programmer must do to debug their software.

4. What are the three types of errors in a computer program? Explain each.

5. Explain the concept of top down design.

Value 10