

“THERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW.....”

LAW DAY 2012
ESSAY CONTEST

In celebration of Law Day 2012 students in Grades 9-12 are invited to submit essays outlining a new law they feel should be enacted in their school, community, the Province of New Brunswick or in Canada.

The PRIZE is $50.00 for the student and $100.00 for the class

The essay should be 1,000 words or less, typed in size 12 font. The essay should include what the law would do or change, the pros and cons of the new law, the potential impact on existing laws, why the law needs to be created, who would enforce the law and where the law would be enacted.

Submit your essay with cover letter including your name, address, phone number, grade level, name of school and teacher before April 10, 2012.

Entries may be submitted by email to cle@cbanb.com, ehardy@smss.com or by mail to Law Day Committee 500 Beaverbrook Court, Suite 300, Fredericton, NB, E3B 5X4.

ALL ENTRIES MUST BE RECEIVED BY APRIL 10, 2012

Journée du droit
Law Day

Law Day is an initiative of the Canadian Bar Association

La Journée du droit est un projet de l'Association du Barreau canadien

