

This is a recent list of scholarships available

This will be updated regularly

The Terry Fox Humanitarian Award Program for students entering postsecondary studies provides a $7000 scholarship renewable for four years to successful candidates. The criteria are:

1. Demonstration of the highest qualities of citizenship
2. Courage in overcoming some personal obstacle
3. Voluntary humanitarian work and community service
4. Participation in sports and a good academic standing

Students may ask to be nominated by their school.

Applications are available from the web site, which is www.terryfox.org .

They must be postmarked before Feb. 1st. More information is available in the Guidance Centre.

The National Union of Public and General Employees are offering the following scholarships of $1,500 each to children or foster children of their members (N.B. Public Employees Association):

1. The Tommy Douglas Scholarship

- awarded to the best writer of an essay of 750 to 1000 words on "How Tommy Douglas contributed to making Canada a more just and equitable society"

-

The Terry Fox Memorial Scholarship

- open to disabled students who write the best essay on "the importance of quality public services in enhancing the quality of life to people with disabilities"

-

Scholarship for Aboriginal Canadians

- awarded to the best writer of a 750 to 1000 word essay on "The importance of quality public services in enhancing the quality of life of Aboriginal Canadians"

Scholarship for Visible Minorities

- awarded to the best writer of a 750 to 1000 word essay on " the importance of quality public services in enhancing the quality of life of visible minorities

The deadline for submission is June 30th. Applications are available in the Guidance Centre or from www.nupge.ca .

The University of New Brunswick- Saint John Campus offers The Primrose Scholarship to recognize academic achievement, community involvement, and athletic leadership. It has a value of $5000. The deadline to apply is March 15.

More information is available at www.unbsj.ca/primrose, or in the Guidance Centre.

The Dialogue New Brunswick Scholarship is offering a $1000 scholarship to any students who are going on to post-secondary education. One must demonstrate in a 250 to 400 word essay that one's extra-curricular and community involvement help promote the values of mutual understanding, respect and appreciation between New Brunswick's two official language communities. The deadline to apply is April 22, 2010. Applications are in the Guidance Centre.

The Credit Union Harry M. Daley Memorial Bursary valued at $1000 is offered to selected students who will be pursuing post-secondary education. Two will be awarded in our area of New Brunswick comprised of Northumberland, Gloucester, Restigouche and Madawaska counties; one of these is reserved for the son or daughter of a credit union member. It is based on financial need, academic standing and extra-curricular activities . Applications are in the Guidance Centre or at: www.creditunion.nb.ca . They must be received by 1 PM, April 2nd in Moncton.

Youth In Motion is offering the "Top Twenty Under Twenty" awards with a value of $5,000 each. One must have demonstrated innovation, leadership, and achievement in their own life, school, community or country. The deadline to apply is January 22nd, 2010. There will be 20 given in Canada. Apply on the website which is : www.Top20Under20.ca .

UNB will host an information session at The Rodd River Resort on Wednesday, December 16th, at 7 p.m. Anyone is welcome to attend.

The Atlantic Canada Marine Biodiversity Essay Contest will award a first year tuition scholarship in science at Atlantic universities to three grade 12 student who submits a winning essay of 2500 words on the topic of biodiversity in Atlantic Canada. More information is available in the Guidance Centre, or at: www.marinebiodiversity.ca . The deadline is March 26th, 2010.

The Assumption Foundation is offering a $500 scholarship. To be eligible one must have at least a 70% average for the last completed school year, and demonstrate that they have financial need. Applications may be obtained in the Guidance centre or done by going to their website at: www.assumption.ca. It is listed under "community involvement". The applications must be received by their office no later than April 30th.